

Diversion of Yagachi River.

Q.—299. Sri M. RAMAPPA (Hosadurga). —

Will the Minister for Public Works be pleased to state:—

- (a) the reason for taking up the diversion scheme of Yagachi river from the Cauvery basin to Vedavathi basin ;
- (b) the stage at which the work stands at present ?

A.—Sri VEERENDRA PATIL (Minister for Public Works). —

(a) To provide irrigation facilities to Hiriur and Challakere Taluks of Chitradurga District which are scarcity affected areas and which cannot be provided with irrigation facilities from Vedavathi waters due to low yield in that basin.

(b) The Project estimates have been finalised and sent to the Government of India for clearance. Depending on the availability of funds the work is proposed to be taken up during the 4th Plan.
